business trip to Rumford Falls, Saturday.

Mrs. Ruby (Smith) Cunningham of Gorham, N. H., spent Sunday with her brother and family which included the new niece, Maria Twidell Smith, and was also a guest of her aunt, Mrs. A. E.

K. Grover, also in company with her brother visited Riverside and Grover Hill cemeteries in memory of relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Fairbanks (Lorna Littlehale) and son, Clayton made a trip

from East Braintree, Mass. over Sunday
to their farm upon the Branch on Sunday River, also made a short call on Mrs.

A. E. K. Grover. They returned Monday

to Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bird of Buxton
were in town recently. Mr. Bird is a native of Albany.

Bethel Grange held memorial services
at their meeting Thursday evening, June

3.

Memorial Sunday service was held in the Congregational church. All patriotic organizations were present. Rev. S. T.

Achenbach, pastor of the church, gave an inspiring sermon and the music was exceptionally good.

The order of the day, Memorial Day,
was: The Sons of Veterans went to the different cemeteries and decorated the graves of the Veterans. At East Bethel appropriate exercises were held with an address by Harry W. Boyker. Dinner was served to members of the patriotic organizations in Odd Fellows hall, after which there were exercises at the monument at 2 p. m., an address long by

Mr. H. J. Jordan with friends of Rumford Falls were callers Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Marchus Philbrick.

Mrs. Susie Kendrick, sister of Miss Kate Howe with whom she spent the winter, passed away at the McCarthy hospital in Rumford, Monday morning at three o'clock. Mrs. Kendrick had been ill for sometime with a trouble in one of her feet; after a consultation it was deemed necessary to perform an operation. Her son, H. Kendrick of Litchfield, has been with his mother, and his sister for a short time. The remains were brought to the home of Miss Howe,

Main street, where funeral services were held. Burial was in the family lot in Litchfield. Much sympathy is felt for the family left, as this is the third break

in the family the within a few months.

Arthur Jackson of Portland, who spent a few days with friends had the misfortune to get run into and his car was badly damaged. No one was hurt in either car, which is fortunate.

lin, N. H.

Mrs. Fred Clark is recovering from a severe ill turn.

Mrs. Arthur Herick is in the M. G.
hospital at Portland, where she was operated on for appendicitis. She with her husband had started for Boston; a sudden severe attack obliged her to go at once to the hospital. She is making a good recovery.

Rev. N. R. Pearson and Mrs. Pearson,
Herbert Perkins and Mrs. Henry Cole

were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kendall, recently.

Mrs. Herbert M. Kendall was an overnight guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. A.

E. K. Grover, on her way from Boston
to her home in Norway.

There is an agitation among those who have relatives buried in Grover Hill cemetery to form a society and have it incorporated as a most commendable deed

will be performed if it materializes, and there is really no excuse for delay and once the need is fully understood we are sure will bring a ready response.

Sunday School Lesson

(© 1924, Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for June 6

JACOB AND ESAU

LESSON TEXT—Genesis 33:1-11. GOLDEN TEXT—Be ye kind one to another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you—Ephesians 4:32.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Two Brothers Make Up a Quarrel. JUNIOR TOPIC—Esau Forgives Jacob.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Brotherly Love and Forgiveness. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—A Lesson in Reconciliation.

I. Their Birth (25:21-28). In answer to Isaac's prayer, seed was given unto him. Before the children were born God revealed unto Rebekah the fact that the elder should serve the younger. God reversed the ordinary law concerning the position of the elder son.

II. Esau Sells His Birthright (25:27-33). It was right that Jacob should have the birthright and the blessing, for it was according to God's plan which had been preannounced, but his scheme to get them is to be condemned. He took advantage of a brother's weakness to drive a sharp bargain.

2. Esau the profane (Heb. 12:16, 17). Many think that profanity is only swearing, but swearing is not the common profanity. To be under the sway of appetite is to be a profane person. Esau was a supreme example. He sold his birthright for a bowl of pottage. This birthright was the right of being at the head of the patriarchal family, a position of honor and influence, as well as the inheritance of a double portion of the father's estate. This being a gift of God, it should not be despised. In the moment of his distress he thought only of that which would bring him some carnal satisfaction. He was willing to relinquish all claims on the future if only his present desire could be gratified. A profane person, therefore, is one who for the enjoyment of the present will forfeit all claims upon the future.

(III) Jacob Secures the Blessing (27:1-28). Esau requested to get venison for his father (vv. 1-4). Isaac loved Esau because of his venison (Gen. 25:28). He ought to have loved him because he was his son. It is a sad commentary upon a father that his love for his son has been so sordidly based as that of his stomach.

2. Rebekah's scheme (vv. 5-23). God had said to her that the elder should serve the younger. It was His plan that Jacob should be at the head, but God was able to bring His own plans to pass.

3. Esau's remorseful cry (vv. 24-33). When he came to realize that he had not only lost his birthright but the blessing, his conscience smote him and he earnestly begged for a blessing, even seeking it with bitter tears.

1. As a result of Jacob's cunning and deceit he was obliged to flee from home to save his life. In spite of his selfishness and sin God appeared to him at Bethel.

2. Prayer for deliverance from Esau's wrath (32:9-12). He was about to meet his brother, whom he had wronged some twenty years before.

(1) He made his plea on the basis of God's covenant. Jacob came in line with the Abrahamic covenant, so he had a right to plead that relationship.

(2) He pleaded that he was in God's way. We should assure ourselves that we are going according to God's will, then make our pleas before Him on that ground.

(3) He made a definite plea. He told God plainly of his danger. He said, "Deliver me from the hand of my brother."

3. The angel wrestles with Jacob (32:22-30). Observe that it was not Jacob wrestling with the angel, but the angel wrestling with Jacob. Jacob did not get the blessing because he wrestled, but he was not blessed until he had been crippled and in his helplessness clung to God.

4. Jacob gets a new name (32:27-30). This experience at the ford of Jacob wrought a mighty change in Jacob. "Jacob" with his cunning and deceit was left behind and "Israel," a prince with God, entered the land.

V. Esau and Jacob Reconciled (33:1-11). At Jacob's Jacob got right with God, so now he easily got right with Esau. It is easy to get right with our brother after getting right with God.

In a Trackless Wilderness He who sees no star can never be stable. He wanders vainly in a trackless wilderness.—G. H. Morrison.

III Thoughts Leave a Trail An arrow may fly through the air and leave no trace; but an ill thought leaves a trail like a serpent.

Tomorrow Tomorrow—I dare not ask; I know not what is best. God hath already said what shall betide.

SUMMER

Snow Drift Still Visible—Stopping at Sturtevant Place Till Camp is Built.

Very little planting has been done in this section at this writing, May 30, and it looks like a short season for the farmers, though the fields and pastures are looking fine and an abundance of feed for stock.

Mrs. Emerson Bartlett and Mrs. Linn Farrar went to Rumford with Irvin Bartlett, Wednesday evening, the 30th, Mrs. Bartlett had her teeth extracted.

The writer went to East Summer Saturday morning, the 29th, by auto to connect with the train for Rumford where upon the train there were several snow banks visible from the car windows and one of them in particular not far from the East Park station that was about twenty feet in length and more than five feet in depth.

Mr. Johnson, the Auburn cattle dealer is a frequent visitor in this section, and as usual makes his headquarters at Linn Farrar's and quite often Linn accompanies Mr. Johnson upon long trips, in search of stock and whatever is wanted in their line from a Bob veal to an eight foot ox. Linn has a natural way of knowing where they are located.

Mr. Pingree, with a small crew of men are living in the former Henry Sturtevant buildings until they get their set of camps built near the bridge on the green woods road where they have begun a large pulp peeling job for the Penley Bros.

P. V. Redding went to Rumford with his truck, Friday, the 28th.
